v.

KEITH J. GRAY

Case No. 3:24-CR-00250-S

UNITED STATES' WRITTEN STATEMENT REGARDING TRIAL

Pursuant to the Court's initial Scheduling Order in the above-referenced matter (Dkt. 11, ¶ 7(e)), the United States of America ("the government"), by and through the undersigned counsel, files this written statement regarding trial scheduled on February 24, 2025.

1. The estimated length of trial: The government anticipates its case-in-chief will be approximately 6 days in duration, including opening statements and reasonable-length cross-examinations of government witnesses.
2. The status of any plea-bargaining negotiations: The government's plea offers extended to the Defendant Keith Gray (both pre-indictment and post-indictment) have been rejected and there are no outstanding offers or negotiations. The government is prepared to begin trial as scheduled.
3. Scheduling conflicts: The government is unaware of any scheduling conflicts and intends to make travel arrangements for any out-of-town witnesses to be available to testify in-person the week of February 24, 2025.

4. Any additional matters: The government separately filed a Trial Brief (see Dkt. 11, ¶ 7(f)) outlining anticipated issues that may arise at trial. (Dkt. 32.)
